"The visa regime liberalization for the Macedonian citizens, as well as the Republic of Macedonia 2009 Progress Report and the recommendation for opening the accession negotiations are acknowledgements of our results and of our commitment for EU membership.

The Assembly of the Republic of Macedonia discussed in detail the Report of the European Commission and adopted Conclusions focusing on the need to work harder in the period after receiving of the date for opening accession negotiations. We are aware that this is the most difficult part of the process of integration in the EU, but we also know that Europe is where we belong historically and culturally", said the President of the Assembly of the Republic of Macedonia, Mr. Trajko Veljanoski.

Mr. Zoran Thaler said that the progress which the Republic of Macedonia has achieved is evident, and that this is of great importance not only for Macedonia but also for the whole region. During their working visit in the European Parliament in Strasbourg from 23 to 26 November 2009, the Delegation from the Committee on European Issues of the Assembly of the Republic of Macedonia composed of Mr. Petar Pop Arsov, Ms. Slavica Grkovska - Loskova, Ms. Flora Kadriu, Mr. Nazif Bushi had meetings with Mr. Kristian Vigenin, Mr. Eduard Kukan, Mr. Alojz Peterle and Mr. Zoran Thaler, Mr. Olle Ludvigsson, Mr. Ioan Mircea Pascu, Mr. Martin Kastler, Mr. Monica Macovei and Mr. Cristian Dan Preda, MEPs in the European Parliament from different political parties.

The common opinion prevailed during the meetings that the negotiations with the name issue and the negotiations for membership in the European Union should go on two separate tracks, i.e. to use the Slovenian - Croatian model for finding solutions to the problems. They also stated that there should be a recommendation for start of the negotiations for the Republic of Macedonia in the Resolution of the European Parliament for the Enlargement Strategy of the European Commission for the Western Balkan Countries. The MPs from the Macedonian Delegation were also present at the preparatory meeting of the JPC - European Union and the Republic of Macedonia where Commissioner Oli Rehn addressed the parliamentarians, stating the significant progress made by the Republic of Macedonia in the past period by fulfilling the outlined benchmarks and expressed confidence that the Euro-integration process will continue with the solution on the name issue.
